

FCE 272: Economics 1 Course Description

The course covers the following key areas; Scope and methods of Economics: resources and basic Economic problems. Price theory: The General view of the price system, elementary theory of supply, National income, money and banking, International trade. Project evaluation and Investment decisions. Elements of project analysis and implementation. Engineering studies. Cost benefit analysis. Financial study, social profitability of projects